

VERMONT INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

For more information: CONTACT

Orly Yadin
Executive Director, VTIFF
P 802.660.2600
E orly@vtiff.org

Rick Kisonack
Director, Burlington Book Festival
P 802.343.5428
E burlingtonmag@gmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vermont International Film Festival & Burlington Book Festival- Special Screening

Burlington, VT: (February 26, 2018): VTIFF & BBF are pleased to announce a screening of Ex Libris, as part of their 2018 Page and Screen Series.

Sunday, March 11 at 2:30pm, Main Street Landing Performing Arts Center - Film House:

EX LIBRIS

Written & Directed by Frederick Wiseman

USA | 2017 | Documentary | 197 min

In his latest, the Oscar-winning director brings his incisive vision behind the scenes of one of the world's greatest institutions of learning, capturing the vast programmatic scope of NYC's library system across its 92 branches. The film celebrates a venerable place of cultural exchange and intellectual creativity.

Ex Libris is the 42nd film from one of the world's greatest living documentary pioneers. Over the past half century, Wiseman has created a distinguished body of work primarily devoted to examining American institutions, society and democracy as well as existence itself. To date, the film has been honored with the Critics' Choice Award, special recognition from the Vancouver Film Critics Circle and International Cinephile Society along with multiple prizes from the Venice Film Festival

Links to High res stills: vtiff.org/press